

FAITH FORMATION COMMISSION MISSION STATEMENT

Faith Formation is a continual process of discovering, unwrapping, examining and appreciating God’s gift. It is overlapping and lifelong. A comprehensive faith formation process must be integrated into parish life. It is another way of saying that we learn our faith as we live it, in the midst of a celebrating community that proclaims Jesus’ message in Word and action. Adults and children learn by doing.

If you join.....

If you join the Faith Formation Commission you will ..... become active in supporting our Faith Formation staff – Jessica, Adam, Mary, Jen, and Jean - as they carry out their current ministries. You might also assist them in planning for changes – implementing new Faith Formation programs as needed. We need educators and mothers and fathers and active parishioners who know what makes St. John’s tick – parishioners who love St. John’s and want to make it even better.

If you join the Faith Formation Commission, St. John’s promises to ..... support you in your efforts, by providing you with information before and at the meetings that will enable you to:

- understand the decisions that need to be made
- understand the facts and the context of the decision situation
- know what resources are available to support the decision.
