

Bearing witness to Jesus Christ who is the Way, the Truth and the Life: GO. MAKE. TEACH.
Our Core Values: a reliance on prayer, a willingness to grow, a generous spirit

Journey to the Inn

Saturday, January 9 at 6pm

We will gather in the West parking lot in our cars for the reading of the Bible story and Christmas carols over the radio on FM 91.7. We will then follow the Wise Men to the gym lot and drive by the living manger with Jesus and the animals. We will be handing out a special treat to everyone, via collection baskets. Participants will stay in their vehicle the entire time due to COVID precautions.

Decorate your car with a happy birthday sign for Jesus!

*All kings shall pay him homage,
all nations shall serve him.
~ Psalm 72:11*

From the Pastor: Father Paul Shovelain

Have you ever had a “Ah-ha!” moment? This weekend we celebrate an “Ah-ha!” moment where the three kings realized Jesus was King of the World! He is truly the king of all. We see this in the Nativity scene. The shepherds represent that Christ came to save the poor as well as the Israelites. The Wise Men represent that Christ came to save the rich and the non-Israelites. For the Jewish people, this was mind blowing. God’s people were the Israelites and now he chooses all people. This is radically different. Another mind-blowing truth is that God who is all powerful and infinite took on human flesh that is finite and weak. Yet, Jesus raises us up as human beings and unites us to God. This gives us hope and confidence.

As we begin a new year, we ask God to help us understand the mystery of life and God’s plan more fully. He is in charge and will strengthen us as we lean on him. He came to save us and help us journey through life. Let the Lord lead you and teach you this year. He will teach you about trust and compassion as he strengthens you and fills you with his love. Pray for a further understanding of God’s plan. His presence and faithfulness give us hope. United to God in the Holy Spirit, we are given wisdom and understanding as the wise men were. Jesus loves YOU! The wise men knew Jesus loved them even though he had not yet died on the cross for their salvation. They did not understand God’s plan completely, yet they came to offer their gifts and entrust themselves to him. As we look ahead at the unknown, we cling to hope united in the Holy Spirit. Come, Holy Spirit! Help us to have more “Ah-ha!” moments this year that give us hope and strengthen our relationship with God the Most High this year.

Thank you to staff, volunteers and parishioners!

Thank you for the tremendous outpouring of love and kindness at Christmas! Thank you to everyone who volunteered to decorate the church as well as at the magnificent Masses! It was wonderful to celebrate Mass together. Thank you as well for the many cards, gifts, and kind words that you shared. God is at work here and it is an honor to be a part of it. Be assured of my prayers for you and your families.

In-person events

As we begin the new year, we are hoping to resume more in-person events. This will depend upon what our government leaders allow. We continue to work to maintain your physical safety yet support your spiritual and mental health, as they are vital. We plan to resume having in-person events that are more “static” in nature the second full week of January. A “static” event is one where traffic and movement is controlled. Social distancing is able to be maintained and there is minimal physical risk. So please be in communication with your group leader and/or staff liaison regarding the format or your meetings or events. Thank you for your patience and understanding as we continue to navigate these difficult times.

As the Father loves me, so I also love you!

Father Paul Shovelain

Epiphany House Blessing

On the Feast of the Epiphany, the family gathers to ask God's blessing on their home and on those who live in or visit the home. It is an invitation for Jesus to be a daily guest in our home, our comings and goings, our conversations, our work and play, our joys and sorrows.

A traditional way of doing this is to use chalk to write above the home's entrance. It can also be written somewhere inside the home. We will have Epiphany Blessing Bags that you can pick up at the Masses this weekend.

20 + C + M + B + 21

The letters C, M, B have two meanings:

- They are the initials of the traditional names of the three magi: Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar.
- They also abbreviate the Latin words Christus mansionem benedicat, "May Christ bless the house." The "+" signs represent the cross and 2021 is the year.

Here's a suggested format for the blessing:
All make the Sign of the Cross.

Leader: "Peace be to this house and to all who dwell here, in the name of the Lord."

All: Thanks be to God.

Reader: When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage."

After their audience with the king they set out. And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was.

They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.

The word of the Lord.

ALL: Thanks be to God

Using chalk, write on the outside of your house or inside above the front main entrance, or next to an entrance:

+20 Christus Mansionem Benedicat 21+ or +20 C M B 21+

These words mean. "May Christ bless this house" or you may use the names of the Magi

+20 Caspar Melchior Balthazar 21+ or +20 C M B 21+

All: Lord God of heaven and earth, you revealed your only begotten Son to every nation by the guidance of a star. Bless this house and all who live here and all who visit. May we be blessed with health, kindness of heart, gentleness and the keeping of your law. Fill us with the light of Christ, that our love for each other may go out to all. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

PLEASE PRAY FOR...

Those who have entered eternal life:

Loretta Witkowski, Robert Asfaly

Those who are ill:
