COVID-19 Mass Changes Discussion

Not everyone social distances on their way up to receive communion

Social distancing in a line is pretty normal to everyone now

Members liked the idea of having sections that are more separated for those who are comfortable with more space- some sections with more social distancing and some with not as many pews blocked off

Just a reminder from whomever is saying Mass to social distance when coming up for Communion from other parties or family members

Holy Week and Easter Masses

Need ushers.

Anticipating using overflow spaces

Groups

Tom spoke with Jeannie Kratzer- Library Committee- on hold right now.

Primetimers ARE active -doing a blood drive on April 8

Grandparent's Ministry is on hold

Soup Suppers - any news on Steve Fiero's position?

Marianne spoke with Quilters- they are planning to meet in April once they have all gotten their shots

Rita said to try reaching out to Mary Kohlhaus to see if she has any insight on the status of the African American Ministry

FallFest

Had their first meeting to touch on basic items- planning full speed ahead with an in-person “as normal as possible” event

Still trying to determine if the auction will be in-person or virtual

Still trying to determine how many days the festival will be

Goals

Steve to take a look at our goals for next time

One of our goals was to reach out to our groups and see how we can better support them or help them start up again- we have been doing that.
