From Jessica Balzarini, Director of Parish Life

*“Blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord,
whose hope is in the Lord...”*

~ Jeremiah 17:7

In our first reading today, we see the stark contrast between a life that is cursed and a life that is blessed. It shows us a real truth about a life that trusts in human beings and one whose heart is turned away from the Lord. The words used are vivid: barren, empty lava waste. Equally as striking, we see a blessed life as one who trusts in the Lord and has hope. A blessed life brings life giving water, living without fear. A life full of spiritual and physical health is a life that will bear much fruit.

Only Jesus can restore us to life and provide the way to the blessed life that is proclaimed to us today. In God's beautiful design, He uses each of us to help one another find the way to Him. Lent is just around the corner, and there will be many opportunities and resources to help you grow in order to be restored and blessed.

One suggestion is - don't do Lent alone. Think about joining a small group! If you are like me, you may have tried to pray more or read Scripture for Lent, only to peter out and fall short of your goals. A small group gives you a supportive and encouraging community that can make your Lent so much more meaningful, and Easter that much more joyful.

These small groups are designed to draw adults into a friendship with Jesus and one another. There are no teachers or experts in small groups. We learn and grow together. We have trained parishioners to facilitate open-ended conversations that will:

- † Discuss life and faith
- † Reflect on God's Word together, applying the Sunday readings to daily life
- † Seek God together
- † Pray for and with one another

Some parishioners in our community are launching new groups during our Lent 2022 Season of Encounter Small Groups. Check out our website for the online Interest Form. It can be found by link on our home page or under the Reach More tab under Adult Formation. Leaders with clipboards will be available in the back of Church and throughout the St. Paul Plaza this weekend.

Don't do Lent alone! Join a Small Group.

Let's be honest, it's hard to follow Jesus sometimes! We don't always know what our faith in him really means for us, or how the Mass or the Bible matters to our everyday lives. Too often we lack the peace, joy, and strength that we need; and should be experiencing as Catholic Christians.

It's difficult to choose good life changing things to work on throughout Lent and stick to them. A small group can give you the supportive and encouraging community you need to help make your Lent much more meaningful.

Our upcoming season begins the week of Ash Wednesday February 27-March 5. Your first session will depend on your day and time!

Our leaders are ready for questions and to help with the Interest Form after all the masses in the Plaza. You can't miss them they have clipboards! We have Small Group Interest Cards available online and at a Table in the Plaza. Very limited space this season. Sign up today!

Spiritual Adoption Update

Your spiritually adopted baby is now at the halfway point to birth, and the baby is very active. Sleep habits develop and the mother can feel him or her move and stretch, particularly when Mom is resting. Baby is big and strong enough to kick hard against the outer uterine wall and dent it. Up to now, although he or she swam with ease in his or her watery world, the baby was too small for the mother to detect because the inside wall of the uterus has no feeling. Babies born at this age have survived! Visit the Spiritual Adoption Table in the Saint Paul Plaza to view a bigger photo of your baby's fifth month of growth and development!

INTERCESSORY PRAYER MINISTRY

St. John the Baptist's Intercessory Prayer Ministry (IPM) teams provide monthly individual prayer ministry one weekend a month after Mass in the Chapel of Angels, usually the second or third weekend of the month.

We often need prayer for family, faith, health, work, relationships and other challenges in life. The IPM teams will pray with you to bring those needs before the Lord as intercession, which together seeks the Lord's merciful help and loving comfort. Come to the Chapel of the Angels after the scheduled Mass times.

Our next Intercessory Prayer Ministry will be:
Saturday, FEBRUARY 19, after the 4:30 Mass &
Sunday, FEBRUARY 20, after the 8:30 Mass.

"Therefore . . . pray for one another that you may be healed. The fervent prayer of a righteous person is very powerful."

~ James 5:16,17

"Indeed, the mystery of Christ runs the risk of being disbelieved precisely because it is so incredibly wonderful."

~ Saint Cyril of Alexandria
(Feast Day February 14)

The church baptizes at all ages!

A preparation process is lovingly provided to celebrate the sacrament fruitfully. Parent/child Baptism sessions begin with children age 3. If you have an older child or are an adult that would like to be baptized, contact Jill Fink with questions: finkj@stjohnnyb.org or 651-633-8333 ext. 1280.

PERPETUAL ADORATION

"Prayer begins by talking to God, but it ends by listening to Him. In the face of Absolute Truth, silence is the soul's language."

~ Venerable Fulton Sheen

Monday midnight, 2am; Tuesday midnight; Thursday 3am; Friday 2am; Saturday 1am, 5am.

Tax Savings When You Donate Stock

If you have owned stock for a year or more and it has appreciated in value, we invite you to consider donating it to St. John the Baptist. Instead of selling stock and then donating the proceeds, you can donate stock directly to St. John's and support Sunday Giving or another ministry designation of your choice. You save on federal capital gains tax, and you may be able to claim an income tax deduction for the stock's market value at the time of donation. For more information, please contact Mark Dittman or Mary May in the parish office at 651-633-8333. Thank you!

Why We Confess - DVD Series by Dr. Brant Petre

When it comes to the Catholic Church in our time, perhaps the most frequently asked question is: "Why do I have to confess my sins to a priest?" It is often followed by two others: "Why can't I just go straight to God? Where is the sacrament of confession in the Bible?"

In Why We Confess, Dr. Brant Pitre gives an eye-opening Bible study on the origins and meaning of the Sacrament of Reconciliation, commonly known as "Confession."

Many of us know Catholics who haven't been to Confession in years, even decades. Maybe you are one of them. Whoever you are -- if you've ever wondered about the biblical roots of this sacrament, then Why We Confess is the Bible Study for you.

St. John's Respect Life

We are a group of men and women who have been faithfully meeting for over 40 years at St. John's. In a society that glorifies violence, we reject its solutions to problem pregnancies and terminal illness. In a humane, civilized society, we believe that caring for and helping expectant mothers is a non-violent option to abortion, as hospice is a caring option to euthanasia.

Our Mission

By our prayers and works, we strive to open hearts and minds to the sanctity of human life from conception to natural death. Our particular focus is to work to eliminate abortion and euthanasia.
