From the Director of Worship, Lee Trembl

*“John baptized with water, but in a few days
you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit. .”*

~ Acts of the Apostles 1:5

When we enter the church, one of the first things we do is make the Sign of the Cross from the Holy Water in the baptismal font. This reminds us of our Christian Baptism. After that, we genuflect towards the tabernacle as a sign of reverence towards the real presence of our Lord in the Eucharist. During the Mass itself, we stand, sit or kneel throughout. These are examples of both gestures and postures. Gestures involve movement, such as the Sign of the Cross, whereas postures are stationary positions, such as standing. Both gestures and postures help us dive deeper into what is going on in the Mass—each with its own significance.

Among the postures, the three most common ones are standing, sitting and kneeling. When we stand, it traditionally is seen as a sign of respect and readiness, which is why we stand in processions during Mass, since it honors Christ, the priest symbolizing Christ, as he enters. The proclamation of the Gospel is another significant place where we stand, since in the proclamation of the Gospel we believe that it is Jesus himself who is speaking to the Church. Standing for the Gospel also highlights its importance over when we sit for the preceding readings. In that case, sitting would reflect a posture of listening and meditation. Finally, kneeling traditionally has been the penitential posture, which later became a posture of adoration in the Middle Ages. Kneeling also signifies humility, since we are proclaiming our lowly state before God.

Among the gestures, here are some important ones that are often overlooked. Bowing when the name of Jesus, the Blessed Virgin Mary and the saint of the day is mentioned. Genuflecting towards the tabernacle with your right knee, not left. Traditionally, we would genuflect with our right knee towards a king. Also, the significance of the importance of the right is shown with Jesus sitting at the right hand of the Father. During Mass, we always bow towards the altar and we do not genuflect towards the tabernacle, since the current sacrifice is taking place at the altar, it is given priority during the Liturgy. That is why you may notice the lectors, cantors, and clergy always bowing towards the altar and not the tabernacle. However, there are a few places where genuflecting is allowed during the Liturgy, which are at the beginning and end of Mass, before the clergy enter the sanctuary and when they leave. Also, it includes the three genuflections for the priest during the Eucharistic Prayer.

If interested in learning more, I highly encourage you to listen to The Liturgy Guys. Here is a QR code to a podcast on gestures and postures they did. They also cover a wide variety of other topics on the liturgy as well!

In Christ,
Lee Trembl

Parousia - The Bible & The Mass DVD Series by Dr. Scott Hahn

Where do we find the Mass in the Bible? What is the relationship between the two? In ten beautifully produced lessons, Parousia: The Bible and the Mass answers these questions and more. In the latest video Bible study from the St. Paul Center, discover why the liturgy is a major theme that runs through the entire Bible, from Genesis to the Book of Revelation. We will not only look to the Law, the Prophets, and life and teachings of Jesus, we'll also lean on the Doctors of the Church to enhance our understanding of the Mass. We'll see how the New Testament is concealed in the Old, the Old is revealed in the New, and why both point directly to the Mass, the sign of the New Covenant.

Join host Scott Hahn to uncover how and why all of God's action, in creation and redemption, is ordered to the Mass.

Come for the donuts, stay for the truth!! Questions, call Dave @ 612-616-4013

SYNOD 2022

The long awaited Synod Assembly will take place on June 3-5 in St. Paul. Each parish is sending forth from their community representatives for this most important work for our Archdiocese. Please keep our Assembly Members in your prayers as they prepare to work with Archbishop Hebda in the Synod Assembly.

Please check out our Synod page on the website to learn about how the Synod will invoke the intercession of three Blessed Saints. Blessed Stanley Rother has a St. John's connection as parishioners Pat Rother and Gary Rother are each related to him.

Parish Convent for Sale

As previously announced, the Dominican Sisters of the Most Holy Rosary of the Philippines will not be at St. John's after this school year. Therefore, we will no longer need the parish convent at 757 4th Ave NW, which the parish purchased in 2020. The property will soon be listed for sale through a licensed realtor.

Inquiries can be made to Mark Dittman, Director of Business Operations at 651-633-8333, ext. 1215 or dittmanm@stjohnnyb.org.

Please note that Archdiocesan approval for the listing is pending, and therefore some specific information may not be immediately available.

PROTECT YOURSELF FROM SCAMMERS!

There have been recent attempts of someone pretending to be Fr. Paul and trying to scam people. Fr. Paul will not send you a text message unless he has spoken to you first. He will only send you an email from FrShovelain@stjohnnyb.org. If you receive a communication from Fr. Paul and are unsure of its authenticity, please call the parish office to verify before responding.

St. John the Baptist Cemetery Price Increases

Please note that the price of full-body and cremation in-ground grave spaces will go up on July 1, 2022 by $100. These prices have been the same in our cemetery since 2016. Our columbaria niche prices will also be increasing $200. Niche prices have not increased since we opened the columbaria units in 2017. Several other fees will also be increasing.

As always, we invite your presence and your prayers in our cemetery, in keeping with our core value of a Reliance on Prayer. St. John the Baptist Cemetery is an important ministry of our parish in which our beloved dead are remembered and prayed for.

Please find a brochure in the kiosk in St. Paul Plaza or visit our website for information on our cemetery's options and pricing. To purchase a grave space or columbaria niche please contact our Cemetery Caretaker Jeff Bauer at 651-329-2187.
