From the Pastor: Father Paul Shovelain

Called Forth to Grow!

In the past month, I have been able to spend some time learning about farming. In October, I went to Hospers, Iowa to help out at a friend's farm. We picked up corn stalk bales, hauled manure, fed cattle, fed hogs, and rode in the combine. I enjoyed seeing how they have been willing to grow and adapt their farming to provide income for their family as well as help feed the world. One thing that struck me is how they are very resourceful. Not only do they harvest the corn for feed, but they also harvest the corn stalks for bedding. They also are able to feed the cornstalks to the cattle. So not only does the corn produced feed and bed the cattle, it helps the cattle grow and then the bi-product (manure) is used for fertilizer. Thus the corn goes back into the cycle of creation in that capacity.

This past week, I visited my uncle's farm in Sauk Centre. We did chores on Monday morning and then went up to the cattle auction in Perham. At the auction barn, I experienced the fast-paced sale of sheep, hogs, goats, and cattle. It was impressive to hear how fast the auctioneer could speak! I imagine that he could give some pretty quick homilies! All kidding aside, I enjoyed learning from my uncle about why cattle would go for more or less. As I reflect on the changes at my uncle's farms over the last couple of decades, it is inspiring to see my uncle's willingness to grow to be able to farm effectively and efficiently to provide for his family as well as help feed the world.

From these two experiences, I grew in my understanding and appreciation for our farmers as well as seeing how efficiently they use what they are given. One thing I also learned was how farmers have to be willing to grow in order to farm well. Technology has greatly changed farming as well as the demand for food. Farmers have had to adapt and change to meet the demands of the people. Their willingness to grow helped them provide for their families and also for our society through the food they produce.

We need a willingness to grow in our spiritual life as well as to bring Christ to others. Our willingness to grow in our faith will help us to live well. It will also help others come to know Christ as they encounter Christ through our ministry. Pray this week about how the Lord is calling you forth to grow in your faith so that you can experience greater union with Him in word and deed. Respond to the invitation to grow in your faith and the Lord will not only bless you but many others through you!

As the Father loves me, so I also love you!

Father Paul Shovelain

Called Forth! Core Commitment 2023*

In this week's video, Matt and Liz Grosjean share their story of joining St. John the Baptist Parish and how living out our core values has dramatically changed their lives. They are:

- Relying on prayer in approaching God for help in their special time of need.
- Willing to grow as they send their children to St. John the Baptist School and Liz enters the RCIA program to become Catholic.
- Living out of a generous spirit by sharing the good news of what God has done for them.

To view the Grosjeans' story, visit St. John the Baptist YouTube channel or see the link in your November 10 parish email.

*Each year, SJB parishioners are invited to re-commit themselves to our core values. Look for a special mailing to come to your home if you haven't received it already. Questions? Please contact Mary May, Development Associate, at 651-633-8333, x1253, or maym@stjohnnyb.org.

Knights of Columbus

The Knights of Columbus Council 14250 wish to thank all who attended our Waffle Breakfast last Sunday. This was the first Waffle Breakfast the Knights have served with our new waffle irons. Due to our old vendor closing during Covid, our council purchased new irons, so we could continue the tradition. As with anything new, there is a learning curve and we appreciate all the constructive feedback we got.

We look forward to seeing you again in February.

Thanks again,
Grand Knight

Intercessory Prayer Ministry

We often need prayer for family, faith, health, work, relationships, and other challenges in life. St. John the Baptist's Intercessory Prayer Ministry (IPM) teams provide monthly individual prayer ministry one weekend a month after Mass in the Chapel of the Angels. Come to the Chapel of the Angels after the scheduled Mass times below.

Our next Intercessory Prayer Ministry will be:

Saturday, NOVEMBER 19, after the 4:30 Mass &
Sunday, NOVEMBER 20, after the 10:30 Mass.

"Therefore . . . pray for one another that you may be healed. The fervent prayer of a righteous person is very powerful."
~James 5:16, 17

RCIA Rite of Welcoming & Acceptance

Please join in prayer with our Becoming Catholic RCIA class of adults who celebrate these initial rites at the 4:30 pm Mass on Saturday, November 19. At this Rite, the catechumens (unbaptized) and candidates (baptized seeking full communion) publicly declare their intention to continue their journey toward full communion with the Catholic Church. At this Rite, they are asked if they are ready to listen to the apostles' instruction, gather with the worshipping community in prayer, and join that community in the love and service of others. They are signed with the cross to show that they belong to Christ. Members of the parish community should affirm that they are ready to help and support the RCIA participants seeking to follow Christ by prayer and example.

For more information on Becoming Catholic RCIA, contact Jill Fink, Director of Catechesis, 651.633.8333 ext. 1280 finkj@stjohnnyb.org

St. John's Respect Life

We are a group of men and women who have been faithfully meeting for over 40 years at St. John's. In a society that glorifies violence, we reject its solutions to problem pregnancies and terminal illness. In a humane, civilized society, we believe that caring for and helping expectant mothers is a non-violent option to abortion, as hospice is a caring option to euthanasia.

Our Mission

By our prayers and works, we strive to open hearts and minds to the sanctity of human life from conception to natural death. Our particular focus is to work to eliminate abortion and euthanasia.

Meetings - We meet every fourth Tuesday of the month at 6:30 pm in Room 211, so our next meeting is on November 22. Please come and join us!
