Called Forth in Forgiveness!

Divine Mercy Sunday is an opportunity for us to receive forgiveness and reflect on the power of Christ. I have been participating in the 40-day challenge as part of the School of Discipleship which is a part of the formation for our Synod Evangelization Team. We watched a video recently where Jeff Cavins spoke to us about the freedom of forgiveness and it resonated with me. He spoke about how we are to not rehearse offenses, curse them, or nurse them. Forgiveness is releasing someone who has hurt us.

Sometimes we are triggered to go back to past offenses that we have suffered and replay in our mind the pain and hurt that we received. That causes us to hold grudges or hold resentment against another. It is not helpful to hold on to that memory when we just replay it and allow the resentment to deepen. Rather it keeps us captive and the grudge grows which limits our ability to engage in relationships with others. Once we forgive someone we should move on.

Secondly, we should not curse the offense and share it with others by gossiping about the offender. We sometimes are drawn to that as a way of getting equal or leveling up to them. We should not continue to bring up the offense once we have forgiven them.

Finally, do not nurse it. Do not try to think, “I can not believe they...” or “I should have...”. Leave it alone and move on. Jesus is the model of forgiveness. We see Him forgive on the cross not because the soldiers deserved it but out of love for them. He forgives them and moves on to complete His mission of redeeming the world.

We are invited not to rehearse, curse, or nurse offenses against us. Rather as disciples, we are invited to forgive as Christ did and live like our Teacher and Savior.

On this Divine Mercy Sunday, reflect on your attitude towards forgiveness. May we follow the example of Christ, and fulfill the words of the Our Father when we pray, “forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.” We are all affected by sin and the more we cling to unforgiveness, the more we allow the enemy to keep our attention off the presence and love of God.

Easter Reflections

We had a beautiful Triduum. I am grateful to Lee Treml, our Director of Worship, and all those who assisted in making the liturgies so beautiful—from the decorations, to the music, to the liturgical ministers, it was truly a team effort! We had 2500 people join us for our Easter Masses, which continues our upward trend of the last few years.

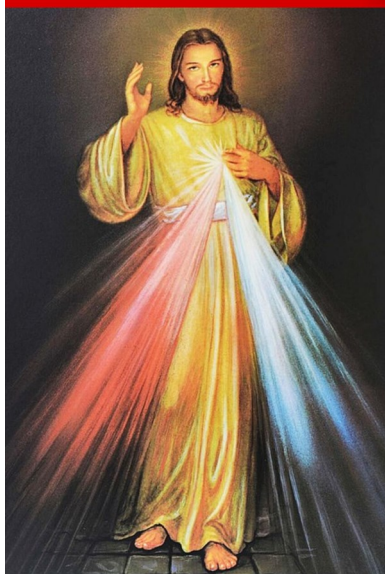

We also had our largest turnout ever for the Easter Egg Hunt and Basket Blessing. Thank you to Jen Livermont, our Coordinator of Discipleship for Families, and all those who helped with that event as it was a great way to call people forth at SJB and invite them to more powerful events at SJB! We pray that all those who attended will be drawn back to SJB and take the next step on their journey to holiness.

As the Father loves me, so I also love you!

Father Paul Shovelain

Purgatory: The Secret Revelations of St. Padre Pio

Who knows what lies beyond the grave? Explore evidence from both the science surrounding near death experiences and the mystical revelations of saints like St. Stanislaus Papczynski (1631-1701), St. Faustina Kowalska (1905-1938), and St. Padre Pio (1887-1968) on the afterlife. Mixing expert testimony with dramatizations, explore the reality of Heaven, Hell, and Purgatory. This powerful film invites us to become aware of the survival of the soul, the presence of our departed loved ones, and how often they need our prayers.

Our Fascinating Faith

Divine Mercy

Saint John Paul II named the Second Sunday of Easter "Sunday of Divine Mercy" in response to Saint Faustina Kowalska's Divine Mercy devotion, which offered spiritual comfort to hearts worldwide. But Pope Francis challenges us to make the comfort that we receive a gift we gladly share, saying that because mercy was first shown to us we are therefore called to show mercy ourselves. The clearest expression of merciful love, says Francis, is pardoning others. He acknowledges how difficult it can be to forgive sometimes, but if we are to achieve peace in our hearts, pardon is the tool that has been put into our very fallible hands. The necessary condition for living joyfully? We must let go of anger, hatred, revenge, and violence. A tall order in a world seemingly bent on the destruction of every peaceful impulse. May Divine Mercy Sunday remind us that Jesus made mercy our life's ideal and a criterion for our faith's credibility: "Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy" (Matthew 5:7).

Meals on Wheels

One of the long-time ministries at St. John's is the Meals on Wheels (MOW) program. A cadre of volunteers are responsible for delivering nutritious food on a pre-arranged schedule to homebound individuals. According to our drivers, the work is rewarding. Tom Mliner started as a MOW volunteer about a year ago. Tom said, "Many of the individuals find it difficult to get out, and they are appreciative of having someone bring them a hot meal or a bag of groceries. Some look forward to having someone stop over and not only bring a meal but spend a few minutes talking with them, as their days can be very lonely."

It is not a burdensome commitment. Normally a parishioner commits to one route per month. And it takes about an hour and a half to make between six and eight deliveries. The area we serve is roughly within the Mounds View school district. We pick up the hot lunch containers at an Arden Hills location from the program's overall coordinator Jeanne Szurek, a SJB parishioner who started with MOW as a volunteer in 1992 and ultimately became the area manager in 2016.

According to another volunteer, Marie Culhane: "Bringing someone a hot meal and allowing them to age in place with dignity is a simple kindness we can all afford to give... I began driving for MOW in 2010. Mary Justin (who volunteered for MOW for approximately 25 years) recruited me during the annual Ministry Fair at St. John's. This was exactly what I needed, having just been widowed and looking for a way to serve others as I traveled through my grief journey. I was assigned MOW delivery every third Friday; however, I was reluctant to "go solo," so I recruited a then-new acquaintance to join me in my mission. That acquaintance, who was on his own grief journey, and I delivered many MOWs together. The 'dates' to deliver meals as acts of service and healing led us into friendship, then courtship and eventually marriage. In lieu of wedding gifts, we asked our guests to make a donation to MOW...."

We have drivers of all ages. While some complete the route alone, volunteers often have friends, children, grandchildren or spouses accompany them.

Other current drivers include: Pat and Tom Kallio, Linda Neary, Jill and Bob Dobrick, Mary and Jim Gag, Kathy Kegan, Mary Topel, Angie Wick, Kathy and Bill Spitzmueller, Carole Delong, Beth O'Donnell, and Gene and Kathleen Delaune.

As circumstances change, drivers need to be replaced. So we appreciate finding new people who might be interested in this ministry. If this appeals to you, please contact the St. John's Meals on Wheels coordinator, Marian Briggs at marian.briggs9@gmail.com

St. John's Endowments

Every year St. John the Baptist receives financial support in the form of distributions from our five parish, school, and cemetery endowment funds.

The General Operations Endowment provides support to meet the needs of the parish including the upkeep and repair of our physical plant, the development of our staff, and enabling the parish to respond to emergencies and special opportunities.

This past year the Operations Endowment funded three new water bottle filling stations on the three floors of the Pastoral Center. These stations are good for the health of our community and good for the environment as well! They are designed to be contact-free, and even include a counter to show how many bottles have been saved.

To learn more about contributing to the Operations Endowment or another SJB endowment fund, contact Mary May, Development Associate, at 651-633-8333, x1253, or email maym@stjohnnyb.org. You may also go to www.stjohnnb.com, select "Donate," then click "Legacy Gift" or simply scan the QR code with your phone.

St. Vincent de Paul Food Drive

How do you measure SUCCESS?...with 311 bags of groceries weighing 3,894 lbs. and $1,612 in cash donations; that's how!

Thanks to your overwhelming generosity, we were able to replenish our own St Johns Food Shelf and make a substantial contribution to the Ralph Reeder Food Shelf to alleviate hunger in our community. Thanks to all who participated, especially those who loaded and delivered bags to Ralph Reeder. Our 2023 food drive was indeed a success.

Spring Cleaning with St. Vincent de Paul

St. Vincent said "In serving the poor, we serve Jesus Christ."

Home Missions Appeal: Strengthening the Church at Home April 29—30

Did you know that nearly 40% of all dioceses in the United States are unable to fund the essential pastoral work their communities need? That includes our own state's Dioceses of New Ulm, Crookston and Duluth. By supporting this Home Missions Appeal in your parishes, you are providing much needed pastoral and financial support for these dioceses and "Strengthening the Church at Home." Please offer what you are able during this appeal.

National Eucharistic Congress: Eucharistic Missionaries

Eucharistic Missionaries are those who are experiencing a personal call from the Holy Spirit to more intentionally be an instrument of the Revival at home, in the work place, in their parish and in their community. If you are or someone you know are those aflame with this desire, the National Eucharistic Revival invites all to subscribe to a new way to "Get Involved" by becoming a Eucharistic Missionary.
