From Parochial Vicar: Father Joseph Nguyễn

Called Forth as we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord!

This Sunday we celebrate the Ascension of our Lord. It is the moment of His glorification, especially as He ascends to the right hand of the Father. However, we notice that there is a certain sadness and trepidation that the disciples feel about the situation because the one that they have been following for three years is leaving them. Despite this, Jesus gives them the great commission, to Go. Make. Teach. It is almost as if He does not understand their situation. Yet Jesus is fully aware of their worries and He reassures them saying, “Behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age.” Jesus also sets the stage for the coming of the Holy Spirit as He tells them to wait in Jerusalem to receive the power of the Holy Spirit.

Jesus sends the Holy Spirit to give us the power to be His witnesses. One of the biggest worries I have is how I can love people in the way that Jesus loves them. I meet all sorts of people in all sorts of different situations, and each person encounters Jesus differently. One of the biggest places I see that play out is in funerals. Some people deal with their sadness by keeping busy, others by telling jokes or stories, some need to mourn through it all, and still others will draw back and just allow things to happen. In all these cases, the person is dealing with loss, and in all the cases Jesus wants to meet them and to love them. The question now is do I trust God to send the Spirit to work through me so that they can be ministered to? So far, our Lord has not failed to show up when I entrust that time to Him. It is with the Holy Spirit that I am able to work with those who want to keep busy, to share stories with those who need to talk, to grieve with those who mourn, and to lead those who need others to take care of things for them. I am able to be all things to all people through the power of the Holy Spirit so that Jesus may meet them where they are at and so that they may encounter His love for them.

As we celebrate the Ascension, we glorify our Lord who now returns to the right hand of the Father. We also hold fast to His promise to send the Holy Spirit among us so that we can be His witnesses in the world.

In Christ,

Fr. Joseph Nguyễn

A great quote from Saint John Henry Newman that Father Paul used in his homily on Mother's Day:

“God has created me to do him some definite service. He has committed some work to me, which He has not committed to another. I have my mission. I may never know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next. I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons. He has not created me for naught. I shall do good. I shall do His work. I shall be an angel of peace, a preacher of truth in my own place. Therefore, I will trust Him. Whatever I am I can never be thrown away. If I am in sickness, my sickness may serve Him, in perplexity, my perplexity may serve Him. If I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve Him. He does nothing in vain. He knows what He is about. He may take away my friends. He may throw me among strangers. He may make me feel desolate, make my spirits sink, hide my future from me. Still, He knows what He is about.”

Mother's Day Blessing used at last weekend's Masses:

Lord, we pray for all mothers... Expectant mothers, future mothers, those that are scared by the news they will become mothers, adoptive mothers, foster mothers, new mothers, busy mothers, tired mothers, overwhelmed mothers, grieving mothers, sick mothers, absent mothers, mothers with regrets, separated mothers, sorrowful mothers, joyful mothers, generous mothers, forgotten mothers, spiritual mothers, godmothers, grandmothers, great-grandmothers, aging mothers, dying mothers, departed mothers. May sweet and gentle Mary, Queen of all mothers, be by their side offering encouragement and bestowing grace upon grace through her maternal intercession.

Amen

Congratulations to our 53 children who received the Lord in the Eucharist for the first time!
Know that Jesus is with you, and may you always journey with Jesus!

Devoted

We have all heard "Happy Wife, Happy Life" but we know it's no one else's job to make us happy. Come and discover what truly makes us happy. This month, on Wednesday, May 24 we welcome Heidi Giebel, a philosophy professor at the University of St. Thomas. She writes and teaches ethics and character development, and in her spare time she is a wife and mother of 12. Our prayer time this month will be in the newly renovated, and almost finished, Chapel of the Angels with a short explanation from Fr. Paul.

Invite a woman in your life who could benefit from our gathering! They may want to get away from the busyness of life or might like the fun drink! They may need some time with her friends! You'll never know unless you ask! See you on May 24 at 7:30 pm for Social Time with Introductions at 8:00 pm!

Quilters Ministry

SJB Quilters will meet the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of the month from 1 - 3 pm in Room 203. We've had many fabric and quilt tops donated. Our group only ties quilts during our meetings and many hands would make short work! New members are always welcome.

For more information, please contact Helen at 763-786-1512. If you would like a prayer quilt, please contact Mary Kohlhaas at 651-633-8333, ext. 1229.

Nursing Room

Need a quiet, private space to nurse your little one during Mass? This space is for you! It's located behind the Garden of Life Chapel and is equipped with a privacy wall, 2 cozy chairs, and a changing table.

If you walk down the ramp to the west leading to the outside doors, you will discover a new addition to our Chapel of Life with the Our Lady of Guadalupe image. There is now a little room set up for nursing mothers to feed their babies privately and yet still be within the church so they don't have to leave Mass. The cozy room is a sweet addition for supporting moms with new babies and there are even supplies for changing the little one and for toys for older siblings if necessary. Please sign up as you use the room to help us see how useful it is and leave any comments you might have regarding the room. We want a welcoming, useful and restful space for you moms and would love to hear your suggestions.
