From our Summer Deacon: Deacon Derek Gilde

Lessons from “Letting Go, Letting God, and Giving Yourself Away”

Our heavenly Father wants nothing more than to bestow good gifts upon his people (Matthew 7:11). Who doesn't want to be blessed? My time here at St. John's has been a tremendous blessing and gift. Prior to my arrival, I knew I was in for something special, but I didn't know what to expect. I was excited because I have always heard so many good things about St. John's. Many of my classmates even said they too wished they could have come here themselves if they were given the opportunity. But to be honest, I was also a little intimidated and unsure of myself, feeling unprepared and lacking in skill for such a vibrant and large parish community. Like Moses who doubted his own God given gifts and was lacking in trust that the Lord would show up when he needed him (Exodus 4:11-12), the Lord reassured Moses saying, “I will help you speak and will teach you what to say.” In a beautiful way, Moses' own struggles offered me the proper “reorientation” that I needed in order to turn my eyes off myself and fix them back on my heavenly Father who calls me to love and trust him above all things. God wants us to receive his blessing. Oftentimes the greatest gifts of God require a good dose of faithfulness and trust on our part. Once I let go, let God, and freely gave myself away to whatever the parish had in store for me, I found an immediate turn of joy and excitement in my heart.

The joy of freely giving yourself away also leaves the door open for the unexpected. One of my greatest hopes has been to learn and see how a large parish can be made into an intimate place of encounter and mission. Both Fr. Paul and Fr. Joseph and the entire staff of St. John's modeled this for me in so many amazing ways how this is done. I discovered that mission requires self-gift to others. Inviting others to partake in parish life requires that people be known and shown the healing power of Christ. In today's world of apostolic mission, St. John's has shown me that it demands we get outside ourselves. While it is not in my nature to do things like go online and speak on Facebook Live, act out the life of a Saint for Totus Tuus, find myself in a jousting match with a pool noodle, or get into a dunk tank, the parish has shown me that mission requires we delight in spending time with God's people. When we give ourselves away out of love for God and for the sake of others, I found that God in return fills our hearts.

Beyond the excitement that comes from giving yourself away, is walking faithfully into the unknown of what God has prepared. Having had little prior experience of being a public person, charting into the waters of preaching and liturgy was another point of intimidation. Getting to know the hearts and minds of the people of St. John's allowed me to step forward in a new and bold way so that my heart could be seen and received by a multitude of others. You all have shown me that loving God's word and loving God's people are inseparable. When we pray together as one body, our public act of worship becomes a transcendent participation in the divine life of God. I received a new and surprising taste of “firsts” in these things as a newly ordained deacon, for example I was given the opportunity to perform my first baptism, preach, plan funerals, conduct communion services, and assist our priests at Mass.

All of what I received by the grace of God and through your generous spirit will never fit in this one page. If I can leave with you one thing, it would be my gratitude. Thank you for showing me the love and joy of the Lord by being the people of faith that you are. Never in my life have I experienced so much delight and joy in the Lord. It helps me affirm my calling, but I also hope it affirms for you the good things God is doing in this parish. You have made a tremendous impact on my life and formation as a future priest. I will be back for visits, but please continue to pray for me in my last year of seminary. If you wish to contact me by email you may reach me at: gild2060@stthomas.edu

Thank you and may God bless you for your generous spirit!

Deacon Derek Gilde

Happening at St. John's

New Director of Community Life at St. John's

We are happy to announce that Jim Martin joined our staff this past week as the Director of Community Life for St. John's!

Jim comes to us with business and engineering experience, but also as a former NET team member and a graduate of the Harry J. Flynn Catechetical Institute. Jim also has strong and longstanding volunteer and engagement experience in his home parish of Holy Name of Jesus in Medina, serving in leadership roles in men's ministry, faith formation, confirmation, Bible study, VBS, Knights of Columbus and the Cana Marriage ministry. Jim's work and life experience, combined with his passion for learning and spiritual growth, make him a unique fit for this role at St. John's.

As Director of Community Life, Jim will work alongside Jill Fink, Director of Discipleship. Jim will focus on grades 6-adult ministry complementing Jill's role with birth to grade 5 family ministries and adult formation. Jim will form adults as disciples of Jesus Christ within the heart of the Catholic Church through the process of evangelization. He will lead parish efforts in evangelization as well as partnering with core teams in our men's ministries, new member expanded ministry and marriage preparation and ministry. Jim will supervise our Youth Ministry efforts as well as Pastoral Ministry.

A note from Jim:

I am very excited to be a part of the discipleship team at St. John the Baptist to grow opportunities that foster personal relationship with Jesus. My volunteer ministry experience at Holy Name of Jesus in Medina for the past 33 years with service in several areas, includes VBS, youth, confirmation, men's ministry, marriage preparation, and Cana Dinner.

My wife Laura and I have been married for 37 years and currently live in Plymouth. We have been blessed with three daughters, two sons-in-law, and three grandchildren. We enjoy spending time with our family and are blessed that they all live in the Twin Cities area.

I look forward to connecting with and getting to know the members of St. John the Baptist as we make this journey to authentic discipleship together.

RCIA, the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is the process by which adult men and women are initiated into the Catholic Church through the sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation. Baptized adults also are welcome to complete initiation sacraments. Participants receive Catechetical instruction, Scripture reflection, faith sharing, prayer, and liturgical rites aimed at helping participants be strengthened spiritually and at the proper time receive the sacraments fruitfully. Sessions meet weekly from mid-September until after Easter on Thursday evenings from 7:00 pm-9:00 pm in room 206. Please contact Jill Fink, Director of Discipleship at finkj@stjohnnyb.org with questions or attend our Information Session next Sunday, August 27 at 9:30am in room 206.
